

NHK SPRING YOKOHAMA FC SEAGULLS

When Yokohama FC Sports Club and Yokosuka Seagulls Sports Club formed a partnership, their aim was to create an environment for Japanese women to pursue soccer as a lifetime sport, as well as increase its popularity and quality among them. In February 2013, the club which had been based in Yokosuka, changed its name to the Yokohama FC Seagulls. However, in 2016, after signing a sponsorship agreement with NHK Spring Co., Ltd., the name was once again changed, this time to the NHK Spring Yokohama Seagulls. For the 2021 season, the team has renewed its contract and will fight to stay in League Division 1.
